MetrioPharm Investor Relations News Q1 2023

Invitation to a Webinar

"Host-mediated therapies for infectious diseases".

The iMPact project, funded by the European Union with MetrioPharm leading the consortium, will end in spring 2023. As part of the project, MetrioPharm's lead compound MP1032 has been evaluated both preclinically and clinically for its suitability to treat COVID-19. If you are interested in a detailed presentation and expert discussion on the results, we cordially invite you on behalf of the entire consortium:

An online webinar will take place on 19.04.23 from 15.00-17.00. During this webinar, we will present experimental studies on MP1032 in different virus variants and present a detailed insight into the clinical study and its results. In addition, experts will discuss how compounds like MP1032 can help protect patients and reduce the burden on healthcare systems during future pandemics.

This event will be held in English. Kindly follow the link for free registration. <https://bit.ly/3natHCR>
